Moore Stephens: bespoke audit strategy and planning services

It has never been more vital to be able to have confidence in an audit. Audit quality is of fundamental importance for maintaining trust in the financial reporting process and the integrity of financial information. That is why Moore Stephens works continually to ensure that audits are carried out to a high standard. The experience of our audit teams, covering many industries and service sectors, enables them to focus on key areas of risk, adequacy of internal controls and potential areas of fraud.

We understand that in order for a business to reach its full potential, it needs a tailored service specific to its needs and requirements. We understand the importance of effective communication between our clients' management and finance teams and we work closely alongside these teams to ensure that our clients' objectives are achieved.

The Moore Stephens audit team comprises of experienced and qualified professionals who fully understand their clients' businesses and long-term goals. They are highly experienced in addressing complex issues and understand the industries these businesses are in and the potential risks they are faced with.

We ensure that the reporting deadlines are clearly set out, to ensure efficiency, along with a planning memorandum which outlines the audit, the responsibilities of all parties involved and the feedback process enabling us to provide an efficient and seamless audit service.
